Rebel Ladies Who Rocked the World

30x3'30

Family

Produced by Silex Films

Available

The portraits of 30 women, each revolutionary in their own way.

30 women who wrote their own destinies and changed the world!

Lighthouse keeper, astronaut, empress, animal interpreter, crime miniaturist... whoever they were and wherever they came from, those Brazen ladies were out to tear down prejudice and bring energy and hope.

Broadcasters' Quotes

FILMIN

"Warning: this series sparks wisdom, empathy, humanity, and fearlessness for the whole family (adelaidalamas). Valerosas has been one of the standout successes on Filmin KIDS since its release. Not only has it captivated children, but it has also provided a way for parents to explore history together with them."

Elodie Mellado, Senior Content Editor and Programmer at Filmin (Spain)

"Brazen (emitida como Audaces) es una serie basada en los retratos de 30 mujeres, cada una revolucionaria a su manera: 30 mujeres que escribieron sus propios destinos y cambiaron el mundo.

Emitida por Encuentro durante el 2023, con fecha de estreno el 8 de marzo de dicho año, esta serie contó con doblaje propio realizado por el canal y nutrió a la pantalla de contenido diverso dando a conocer la historia de estas mujeres y además utilizando la técnica de animación, lo que le dio una riqueza estética y narrativa a nuestra pantalla. MIAM! distribution es un proveedor destacado por su calidad y con el que solemos trabajar habitualmente, por lo tanto haber podido estrenar esta serie en nuestro canal educativo y cultural fue un gran logro para nosotros."

" Bagieu's pen transforms these true stories into something that has the tone of a personalized fairy tale. And in the end, this turns out to be just perfect."

The New York Times USA

" The highest praise I can give Brazen is that it belongs in most every girl's — and boy's — hands by middle school. The book reminds you that too many great women's stories have been lost to history — and that for the greater good, that must never happen again."

The Washington Post USA

"¿Por qué leerlo? Porque además de ser tremendamente entretenido, nos da la oportunidad de conocer la biografía de personajes históricos de los que quizá nunca hemos oído hablar. Es un libro ideal para inspirar también a adolescentes de todos los géneros."

El País Spain

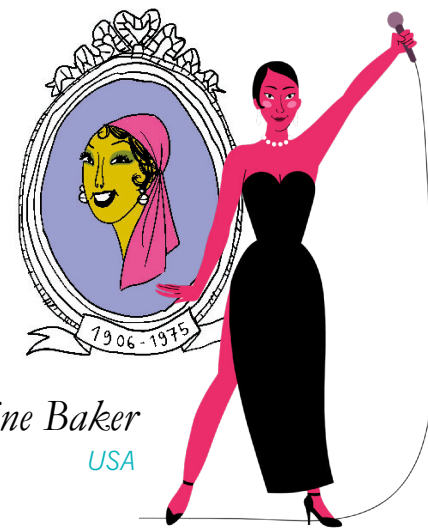

"The two volumes of Brazen honor women while delivering a feminist message."

Les Inrockuptibles France

MIAM! distribution

MIAM! is a Paris-based company founded by Hanna Mouchez, active in the development, production (MIAM! animation) and international distribution (MIAM! distribution) of high-quality animated and hybrid programs. Since 2019, MIAM! is also MIAM! studio, dedicated to the production of real-time CGI programs. We've produced the TV series Edmond and Lucy (52x12'), The Tinies (50x11' + 1x22' + 52x4') in coproduction with Panique! and Lunanime, and Goat Girl (26x11') with Daily Madness and Thuristar.

MIAM! distribution is the commercial arm of MIAM! and holds exclusive worldwide media distribution rights for a catalog of 30 animated programs, produced by 20+ talented independent producers. These programs feature engaging stories for preschoolers, kids, adults, and families alike.

At MIAM!, we are passionate about our shows and their impact for a better future. We believe in sustainable ideas, innovative pipelines, and powerful storytelling. Our line-up supports 30+ daring programs that have audacity and singularity in common, whether that be regarding their graphism or their concept and storytelling. Feminism, inclusion, diversity, sustainability, self-esteem, those are the words that could define our lineup.
